

Some vacations become part of us. The beauty and experiences come home with us and beckon us back. Ohio's Hocking Hills is such a place. Breathtaking scenery, unlimited outdoor adventures, prehistoric caves, waterfalls, hills and ravines all combine, take root and call you back again and again. Bring your sense of adventure and your heart to the Hocking Hills. You'll go home with new stories and count the days until you can return.

Explore the Hocking Hills, Ohio's Natural Crown Jewels.

xcitement, joy, happiness, and heartfelt memories with your family and friends are just some of the things that you can find when you visit Ohio. Whether it is fishing in Lake Erie or getting ice cream at Young's Jersey Dairy in Yellow Springs, taking in a Cincinnati Reds game, or hiking in the Cuyahoga Valley National Park, Fran and I can always find new adventures to share with our family and friends across Ohio.

As you flip through this travel guide, you'll find a glimpse of what you can see and do here in Ohio.

Our state is home to the most bicycle route miles of any state and 75 state parks. From the rolling hills of Appalachia to the Little Miami Scenic Trail, you can see the wonderous beauty our state has to offer in every season.

Explore history at the National Underground Railroad Freedom Center in Cincinnati, the birthplace of Thomas Edison in Milan, or the National Veterans Memorial and Museum in Columbus. You can visit the historic Schoenbrunn Village, which is celebrating its 250th anniversary, or the iconic lighthouse in Marblehead as it marks its 200th anniversary. Create your own history road trip by visiting Ohio.org to find more stops across our great state.

With so many charming villages and vibrant cities with welcoming people, Fran and I know that you'll find your next adventure here in Ohio.

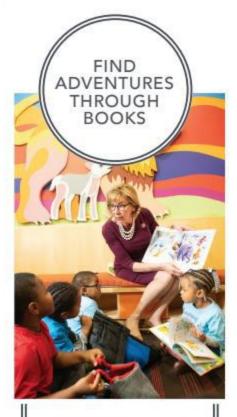

Very respectfully yours,

For journeys that can last a day or several months, follow the blue blazes on the Buckeye Trail. It takes about three months to through-hike the entire 1,444-mile circular loop that traverses Ohio's only national park, 18 state parks, five state forests, and many other natural areas. For shorter excursions, take on sections of the trail in places like Hocking Hills State Park in Logan or East Fork State Park in Bethel. The latter also has a 14-mile backpacking trail and the 32-mile Steven Newman Worldwalker Perimeter Trail, both with free backcountry camping in designated areas.

BIKING — With more cycling routes than any other state, Ohio is one of the top spots in the nation to get your wheels turning along the scenic byways. The state boasts five U.S. Bicycle Routes covering 1,523 miles that link its major cities, follow scenic waterways, and traverse rural landscapes. The 314-mile long U.S. Bicycle Route 21 from Cleveland to Cincinnati is noted for having more than 70 percent of its route on off-street trails. It follows sections of the Ohio to Erie Trail along former railroad beds and historic canals. Approximately 1,600 additional miles of state-designated bike routes make it easy to explore even more areas that are seldom seen from behind the wheel of a car. Mountain bikers won't want to miss exploring Wayne National Forest, Ohio's national forest that covers over a quarter million acres in southeast Ohio. See the woods onboard your bike or on an ATV on the state's largest off-highway vehicle trail. Find your way at Ohio.org/Cycling.

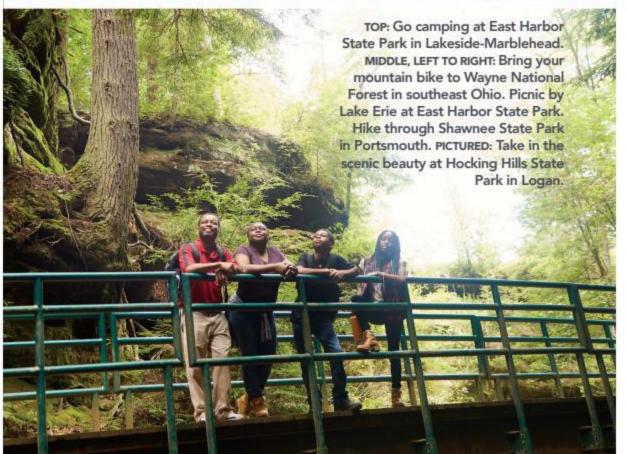

CAMPING — Ohio's state parks cater to all kinds of campers from backcountry pros to those who want more comforts from home. Options for tents and trailers abound at Shawnee State Park campground in Blue Creek, which also has two camper cabins equipped with electricity, heating, and cooling. The wooded campground hugs Turkey Creek, which winds through the rugged hilly landscape of the Appalachian foothills — dubbed Ohio's Little Smokies. Over by Dayton, Cowan Lake State Park has a large campground with more than 200 sites at the north end of a peaceful lake with a family-friendly beach, naturalist cabin, and a family fishing pond. Find even more campgrounds around Ohio, including KOAs, by visiting OhioCampers.com.

PICNICS — Come summer, pack a lunch and take it to a park. Spread a blanket at the edge of a tranquil pond or fire up the grill at a reservable park picnic shelter. The quiet Mt. Gilead State Park has several picnic areas near its lake. Salt Fork State Park near Cambridge has nine picnic areas, including two shelters next to the beach. Just be careful to clean up to avoid an unwanted encounter with Bigfoot (RIGHT), who allegedly has been spotted in the surrounding woodlands.

OHIO'S ONLY NATIONAL PARK — THE CUYAHOGA VALLEY NATIONAL PARK — is just a stone's throw away from the urban center of Cleveland, where the winding Cuyahoga River starts to snake through deep forests, rocky ledges, and wetlands.

Use this handy checklist of the top things to try inside the national park.

Watch the distinctive silhouettes of great blue herons as they stalk their prey in the shallow marshes of the park. From February through June, many of these large birds can be found nesting at the Bath Road Heronry.

Climb aboard the Cuyahoga Valley Scenic Railroad for a two-hour sightseeing trip through the national park by train. Train service also includes a "bike aboard" and "kayak aboard" trip, so you can ride or glide one way, and return to your car by rail.

Hit the slopes at Boston Mills and Brandywine Ski areas. In addition to downhill skiing and snowboarding, there's the adrenaline-inducing Polar Blast Snow Tubing area.

ACCESS MATTERS

Cuyahoga Valley National Park strives to make its visitor centers' activities accessible for people with a wide range of abilities. One of the Cuyahoga Valley Scenic Railroad's (BELOW) train cars offers a wheelchair lift, while the park has boardwalks, picnic tables, and fishing piers with special accommodations.

WATER TRAILS — Some of Ohio's best trails travel across the waves of Lake Erie or the glassy surface of inland rivers and streams. Ohio's designated water trails highlight routes with launch and landing sites for paddlers, places to rest or camp, and points of interest along the way. The Vermilion-Lorain Water Trail is unique to the state because it combines river travel with open-water paddling along the Lake Erie shoreline. More great paddling awaits along the 830 miles of the state's 15 designated Wild, Scenic, and/or Recreational rivers. The Little Beaver Creek State Wild and Scenic River in Columbiana County was the first Ohio waterway to get protected status in 1974. Drift along with the gentle current and bounce over easy rapids while admiring the remote, idyllic scenery, especially between Beaver Creek State Park and Lock 57 Community Park.

WATERFALL SPOTTING — The best time to see Ohio's waterfalls at their most voluminous is following the spring thaw, when the snow melts and heads off on a journey through woodlands, meadows, and gorges, before cascading over rocky cliffs. A 2-mile loop trail that starts at Mohican State Park's Covered Bridge and follows Clear Fork upstream leads to Big Lyons and Little Lyons, a pair of low-flow waterfalls that look best after a heavy rainstorm. Other waterfalls can be found in populous urban areas, such as Indian Run Falls in Dublin, just outside of Columbus. A short walking path leads to viewing platforms and ends at Dublin Veterans Park and Indian Run Cemetery, one of the oldest Native American burial grounds in central Ohio.

BOATING — Ohio has one true Great Lake, but there are still many other picturesque lakes around the state that are great for pleasure cruising in your own watercraft or one you can rent from an on-site marina. Grand Lake St. Mary's is Ohio's largest man-made lake with 52 miles of shoreline, several boaters' beaches, three lighthouses, and two lakeside communities. Pontoons rule this shallow waterway, which has an average depth of 5 to 7 feet, but there are no horsepower limits, so tubing is a popular pastime. In Mt. Sterling, Deer Creek State Park's reservoir also has no horsepower restrictions. In the spring, the lake is popular with anglers vying for saugeye below the dam. During the heat of summer, boats can anchor in the cove adjacent to the state park lodge for swimming.

Ohio state parks are naturally photogenic any time of the year, so preserving their beauty with a camera is easy. There's never a dull moment, from spring when the woods wake up with colorful early blooms to winter when waterfalls form magical ice sculptures. Capture coastal scenes at Maumee Bay State Park, where the swampy wetlands that border Lake Erie contain more species of wildlife than any other habitat type. Train your lens on some of the 300 bird species that migrate through in the spring. On a summer night, experiment with astrophotography at Burr Oak State Park's astronomy field. Its remote location in southeast Ohio allows the stars in deep space to shine bright. One of the best times to visit is mid-August for the Perseid meteor shower.

From a writer who spins words into worlds to a chef for whom food is a vehicle for joy to a scientist whose curiosity has taken her from great depths to great heights, Ohioans are relentless in pushing creative boundaries and eager to share their findings with locals and visitors alike.

Avishar Barua is the executive CHEF AND GENERAL MANAGER OF SERVICE BAR IN COLUMBUS AND A FORMER TOP CHEF CONTESTANT.

How do you create such unique dishes? My cooking is about bringing attention to things I love. For example, my memory of going to Taco Bell as a kid, my family's Bengali heritage and Ohio's great barbecue inspired our Cheesy Brisket Crunch, delicious tacos made with Bengali fry bread and brisket.

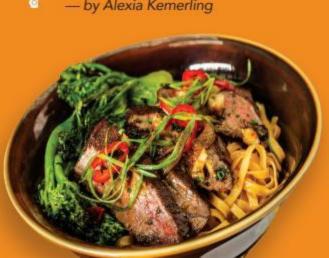

What's Ohio's food scene like?

Ohio is neat in that you'll find places that have been around forever that are just as exciting as new spots. I love places like Mili Café in Columbus. They've been there over 15 years and the owner still makes every single Bahn Mi sandwich herself. Or Crabill's Hamburger Shoppe in Urbana. They have been serving amazing burgers since 1927!

Why do you love being a chef?

My job as a chef is to make you feel good. I get the chance to influence so many people, from making their day better to changing their perspective on life. Restaurants aren't just about good food, they're about creating good memories, too.

by Alexia Kemerling

Thrity Umrigar is the BEST-SELLING AUTHOR OF MULTIPLE NOVELS INCLUDING THE SPACE BETWEEN US AND SUGAR IN MILK, WINNER OF THE 2021 OHIOANA BOOK AWARD FOR JUVENILE LITERATURE. BORN IN BOMBAY, INDIA, SHE'S CALLED NORTHEAST OHIO HOME FOR ALMOST 40 YEARS.

Where do you find inspiration?

Inspiration lives everywhere. It's hidden in the branches of the trees in my backyard. It's glistening off the waves of Lake Erie. It's in the stories told by close friends.

What are some of your favorite Ohio places?

Lakewood Park boasts the magnificent Solstice Steps, and all I can say is, God bless the people who designed and created this marvel! I love Siam Cafe in Cleveland's midtown — the great food and the sight of four generations of Asian families sitting at one of those huge round tables feeds my soul as well as my belly. Loganberry Books and Mac's-Backs Books on Coventry are wonderful. The women owners of both stores are beloved by local writers, and they do everything to support us.

What books would you pack for an Ohio road trip?

The Bluest Eye by Toni Morrison, Barnstorming Ohio by David Giffels, and anything by children's author Dav Pilkey, who grew up in Cleveland.

by Alexia Kemerling

Kathryn Sullivan ACHIEVED AN UNPRECEDENTED MILESTONE BY BECOMING THE FIRST AMERICAN WOMAN TO WALK IN SPACE IN 1984. IN 2020, THE COLUMBUS RESIDENT CELEBRATED ANOTHER ACHIEVEMENT BY BEING THE FIRST WOMAN TO DIVE INTO THE MARIANA TRENCH, EARTH'S DEEPEST OCEANIC TRENCH.

Did you always dream of being an astronaut?

In a word, no. But I did always dream of having a life that was adventurous and inquisitive, like the astronauts, Jacques Cousteau, and the figures in National Geographic magazine had. I thought, "That life looks pretty cool. How do I get that kind of life?"

How did your experiences in space and the ocean impact how you see the world?

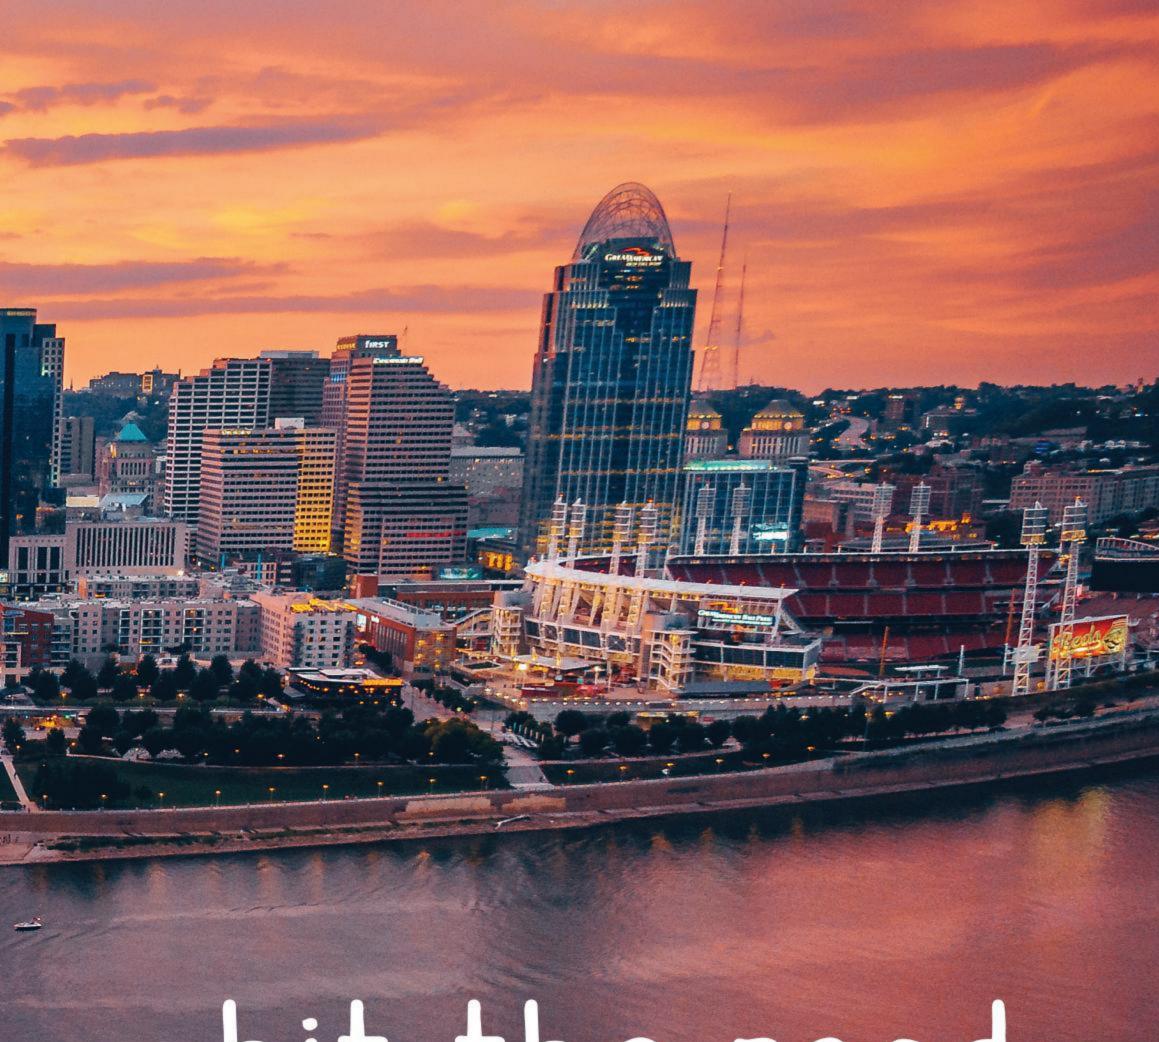

Having the chance to see our planet from space literally changes your perspective and recalibrates a lot of things. Visiting space gave me a rich sense of what's important and what's not, what I'm connected to and what I'm not. And the main thing I came away with from exploring the ocean is just how dazzling the array of life in it is!

EXPERIENCE HISTORY, NATURE, AND THE THRIVING

CITY SCENE in Cincinnati on this road trip that winds through Ohio's gorgeous Appalachian hills.

Traveling west along the Ohio River feels like following the footsteps of pioneers more than 230 years ago when Marietta, the oldest city in Ohio, was founded. Following the river to Cincinnati is one of the best ways to take in the state's gorgeous southern border.

> Start your road trip in Marietta, where you can explore the Ohio River from the bow of the Valley Gem, a historic sternwheeler. Once you disembark, learn more about the river's history at the Ohio River Museum where you'll find the historic W.P. Snyder Jr. towboat moored on the Muskingum River. Next, wet your whistle with a Cooper's Copper Ale or Estella's Raspberry Wheat at Marietta Brewing Co. A block away, experience more history at the Lafayette Hotel, which overlooks the Ohio River. Stop in the lobby phone booth and pick up the receiver to hear the storied history of the 1918-built hotel.

CINCINNATI

Heading southwest out of Marietta, follow the river to Belpre, where the Unicorn Wine Guild, a popular winery and tea shop, pours more than 50 wines made on-site, from dry reds to sweet ice wines. Continue skirting the river and head to Gallipolis, home to the Ohio Tattoo Museum, which displays art and artifacts stretching back to the beginning of electric tattooing. Nearby at the iconic Bob Evans Farm (LEFT), you can feel Ohio's agrarian roots all around. Be sure to stop at Bob Evans restaurant for lunch.

Continue west to Ironton, where you'll find hiking trails and kayak launches in the Wayne National Forest's Ironton Ranger District. Close out the first day of your trip staying the night in Shawnee State Park's lodge, tucked into hills northwest of Portsmouth. Back in the city, check out the flood wall murals that tell the story of Ohio River history and discover even more in the Southern Ohio Museum, which features 10,000 objects from the local Adena and Hopewell cultures, as well as earlier indigenous populations.

Want to see more of Ohio's untouched Appalachian wilderness? Take a quick detour north to Vinton County, where Zaleski State Forest and Vinton Furnace State Forest are densely covered in trees. Gifford State Forest in Athens County and Burr Oak State Park in Morgan County offer additional places to hike.

Experience more of Ohio's history back on the banks of the Ohio in Ripley, which was a key town on the Underground Railroad. Walk the grounds of Rankin House, home to abolitionist John Rankin.

Start your next morning at Jungle Jim's International Market in eastern Cincinnati, where you can spice your life up by choosing from hundreds of hot sauces and a huge array of international foods. Afterward, head downtown to the Great American Ball Park to take in a Reds game. The Reds are the third-oldest Major League Baseball team with a fascinating Hall of Fame and Museum in the park.

After the game, check out the city's Over-the-Rhine district to explore the shops and restaurants, and get a feel for metropolitan Ohio. Before staying the night at the new Kinley Cincinnati hotel, head to its restaurant, Khora, where a grain-focused menu puts a Midwest spin on New American dishes using seasonal, locally sourced

See world-class art museums, experience islands, and explore quiet beach towns.

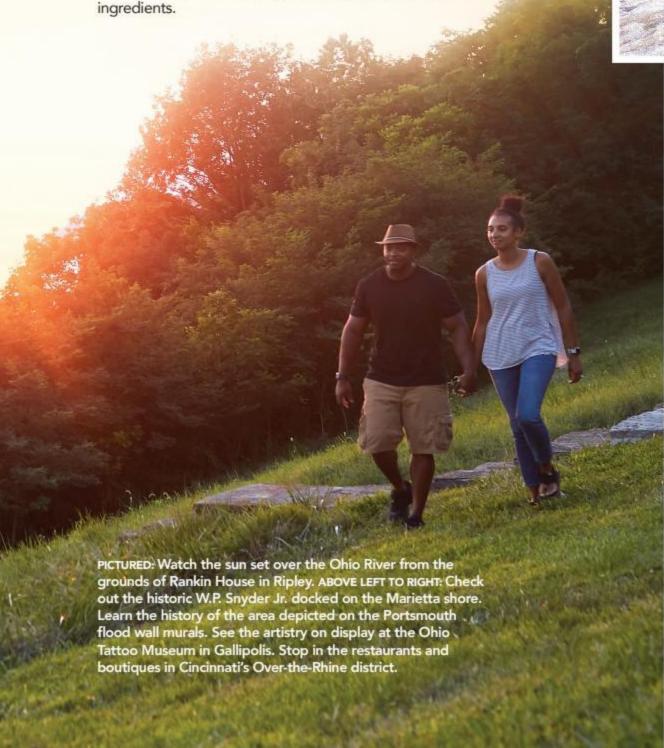

GRAB YOUR BEACHIEST OUTFIT, FLIP FLOPS, AND SUN HAT — it's time to hit Ohio's north shore, road trip-style.

Start your sandy adventure on one of Ashtabula County's Lake Erie beaches, searching for colorful beach glass. Tip: you'll find more with an early morning start. The lake winds also benefit the area's soil and have earned the county the nickname of Ohio's Wine Country. Sip on a glass of wine overlooking the lake at Old Firehouse Winery or the Lakehouse Inn Winery, or head inland for a glass of blush wine over lunch at Ferrante Winery & Ristorante.

Stay overnight by the water at Lakehouse Inn, which also features nine rooms, three cottages, and a beach house for overnight stays. Want to see more wineries? Stay at The Lodge at Geneva-on-the-Lake that offers a winery shuttle and comfy rooms.

Rise with the sun and head west to Mentor's Headlands Beach State Park. The half-mile natural sand beach is the largest in Ohio and a perfect place to feel the wind in your hair and the sun on your face.

Continue west into Cleveland and stop at the Cleveland Museum of Art. The world-renowned, 1916-founded institution is free for all and home to works of art that span thousands of years and a breathtaking atrium. Grab lunch or dinner in Little Italy, which dates back to the mid-1800s and features restaurants such as La Dolce Vita and Presti's Bakery & Café serving crave-worthy cannoli.

If your toes are longing for sand already, the city's Edgewater Beach, part of the Cleveland Metroparks, offers more lakeside views and one of the city's script "Cleveland" signs (BELOW). Snapping a photo in front of the sign is a north shore rite of passage.

Follow the lake west and you'll eventually land in Vermilion. The quaint lakeside town has cute shops such as Brummer's Homemade Chocolates and Cast on Yarn Studio. Relax over dinner at Chez Francois Restaurant, which features fabulous French cuisine.

Snap a photo at Marblehead Lighthouse, one of the most photographed spots on Lake Erie. The lighthouse is celebrating its 200th anniversary in 2022 and is the oldest continually operated lighthouse on the Great Lakes.

Leave the wheels behind in Sandusky and hop aboard the Jet Express, a ferry that will take you to Kelleys Island.

Disembark and check out the island's prehistoric glacial grooves, Kelleys Island Wine Co., and dynamite views of Lake Erie. If you're into more of fast-paced island life, Jet Express will ferry you to South Bass Island's Put-in-Bay, which feels like being dropped onto a lively Caribbean island with exciting bars and restaurants, and lots of live music.

Once you're back at your car, head to Maumee Bay State Park outside of Toledo. Situated on Lake Erie, the park's lodge is the perfect place to recharge. Nearby Magee Marsh is a bird watcher's paradise, especially during the spring when eye-catching warblers stop over briefly on their migration north.

For your last stop, follow the new 419
Ale Trail in Toledo and stop at breweries such as Maumee Bay Brewing Co., Patron
Saints Brewery, and Earnest Brew Works.
The city is nicknamed the Glass City, and you can see why at the revered Toledo Museum of Art, which has an amazing collection of glassworks. Learn to blow glass at one of the museum's many workshops in its Glass Pavilion. Just like the Cleveland Museum of Art, admission is free.

"I was so nervous the night before my flight that I barely slept! That fear diminished when I met my highly credentialed pilot. Once I climbed into the biplane and took my position in front of the cockpit, my apprehension started to ease. As the plane taxied down the runway, I felt apprehension slip away, replaced by a growing sense of excitement which turned to exhilaration as the plane climbed into the air for my 20-minute flight over Troy."

CBÚS FWD

Columbus is a city that has persevered through the hardships of the past couple of years, in large part due to our local business owners and tight-knit resident community. Columbus now continues to be the perfect getaway for anyone looking to enjoy big-city excitement mixed effortlessly with small-town charm.

Columbus is a city made for larger-than-life personalities. Are you a foodie who lives to explore diverse cuisine? Maybe you're a trendsetter who lives for fashion? Columbus will not only help you find your niche, it will help you settle in and make yourself at home. We're calling all sports fans, nightlife lovers, and artists. Columbus is waiting for you.

We've rounded up top spots around the city, some classic and some new. We want to help you navigate our many neighborhoods with ease, whether you're a permanent resident who wants a refresher or a first-time visitor for whom the entire city is a new experience.

SHORT NORTH IS AN ART LOVER'S DREAM

The Short North Arts District sits along the stretch of High Street between downtown and Ohio State's campus and is signified by the 17 lighted arches that line the main thoroughfare. At its heart, the Short North is an arts neighborhood, evident by its monthly Gallery Hops as well as its many murals. The sides of the Graduate Hotel host the world's largest augmented reality mural, The Journey, while art in all forms can be found in numerous galleries and hotels throughout the area. The Garden Theater features performances and cabaret shows year-round, and renowned drag performer Nina West performs original shows at Axis Nightclub.

Beyond art, the area is a hub of activity offering more than 100 restaurants, galleries, and boutiques, and is booming with new mixed-use and residential development. The Short North is also very LGBTQ+-friendly and considered to be one of the city's gayborhoods.

DISCOVER DELIGHTS ALL THROUGH DOWNTOWN

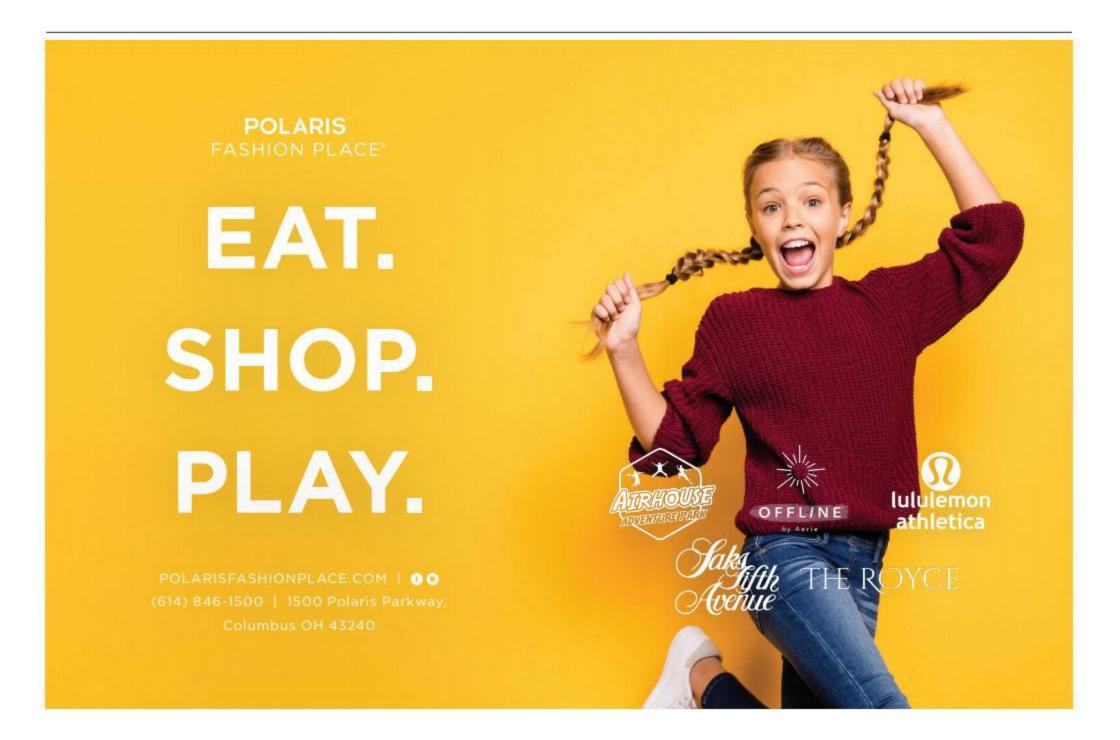

Downtown Columbus is experiencing a revitalization, evident by the open doors of new coffeehouses and restaurants, as well as markets full of unique finds. Pearl Market, a pop-up farmers market located in historic Pearl Alley on Gay Street, is open throughout the summer and into early fall beginning in May. Open Tuesdays and Thursdays, there you'll find farm-fresh foods as well as baked goods, handmade jewelry, and more.

North Market is also a must-stop on any foodie's list. The indoor market is open year-round and is considered one of the city's many modern food courts (along with Budd Dairy Food Hall in Italian Village and the Bridge Park North Market in Dublin).

The Greater Columbus Arts Council can also be found downtown. Their annual Columbus Arts Festival returns in June for two days of food, live performers, and an astonishing outdoor gallery by talented local artists.

TEAM SPIRIT ABOUNDS IN THE ARENA DISTRICT

The northwest part of downtown
Columbus is known as the Arena
District, due to the neighborhood anchor Nationwide Arena.

In addition to hosting concerts from some of the nation's biggest acts, Nationwide Arena is also home to NHL's Columbus Blue Jackets, the only NHL franchise in Ohio and an absolute force to be reckoned with in the NHL. Nearby, the Columbus Clippers, the AAA affiliate of the Cleveland Indians, play at Huntington Park, named best ballpark in America numerous times by Ballpark Digest.

New kid on the block and home to the 2020 MLS Cup Champions, the Columbus Crew, is Lower.com Field. The 20,000-seat stadium opened in the summer of 2021 and is part of a larger mixed-use development behind Huntington Park. Unique features include a continuous wraparound roof, a 360-degree concourse, event space, a 3,400-capacity standing section — along with two patio decks and a "Nordecke Beer Garden" (a first for Major League Soccer) — and a 5,000-square-foot brew hall that's also open on non-match days.

GERMAN VILLAGE WILL TRANSPORT YOU Crossing the bridge from downtown Columbus into German Village is akin to crossing the Atlantic and landing in idyllic 19th-century Germany. Originally built by German settlers in the mid-1800s, the lovingly restored brick houses, shops, streets, and sidewalks are full of historic charm and modern swank.

The entirety of this charming neighborhood is on the National Register of Historic Places, and its German roots show through in its dining options. Sit down at Lindey's for a sophisticated, old-school experience. Or keep your sweet tooth top of mind with a visit to Pistacia Vera. This pretty little café has homemade macarons that are the perfect way to start your day.

GET CREATIVE IN FRANKLINTON

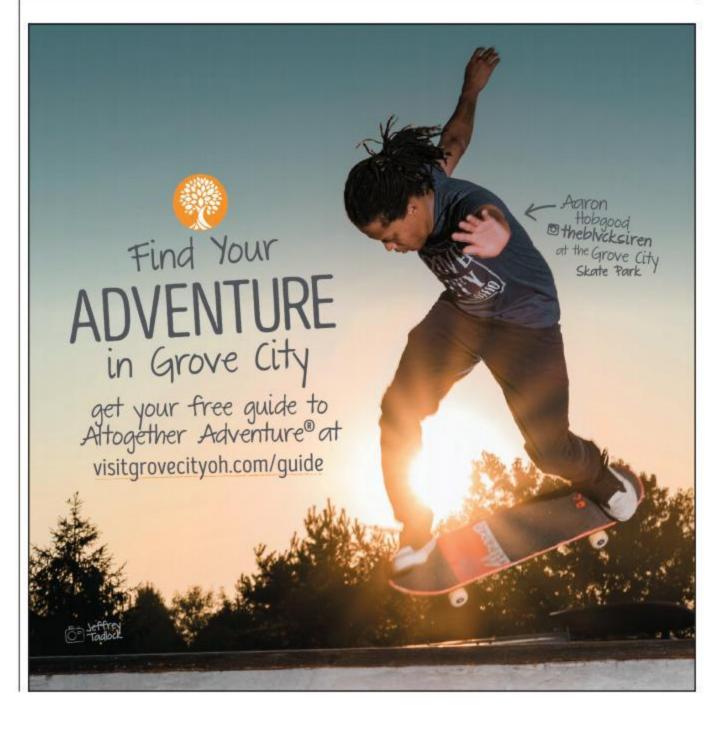

Franklinton, separated from downtown by the Scioto River to the east, continues to experience a renaissance as a center for the city's maker culture and independent art scene.

Visitors can take a trapeze class or explore independent studios at 400 West Rich, an old drinking fountain manufacturing facility offering affordable space for up-and-coming artists. There are plenty of options for those looking to create their own art, including places like Glass Axis and Makers Social. Franklinton Fridays, taking place the second Friday of each month, or the annual Urban Scrawl are great opportunities to explore all the community has to offer.

The area is anchored by two major attractions along the Scioto River: COSI and the National Veterans Memorial and Museum. COSI is Columbus' dynamic hands-on science center that offers more than 300 interactive experiences as well as the one-of-a-kind American Museum of Natural History Dinosaur Gallery. Meanwhile, the National Veterans Memorial and Museum is the only facility in the country that honors all veterans and their families, from all branches of service and eras of conflict, under one roof.

Franklinton is exploding with growth, so it's a neighborhood sure to keep you coming back time and again.

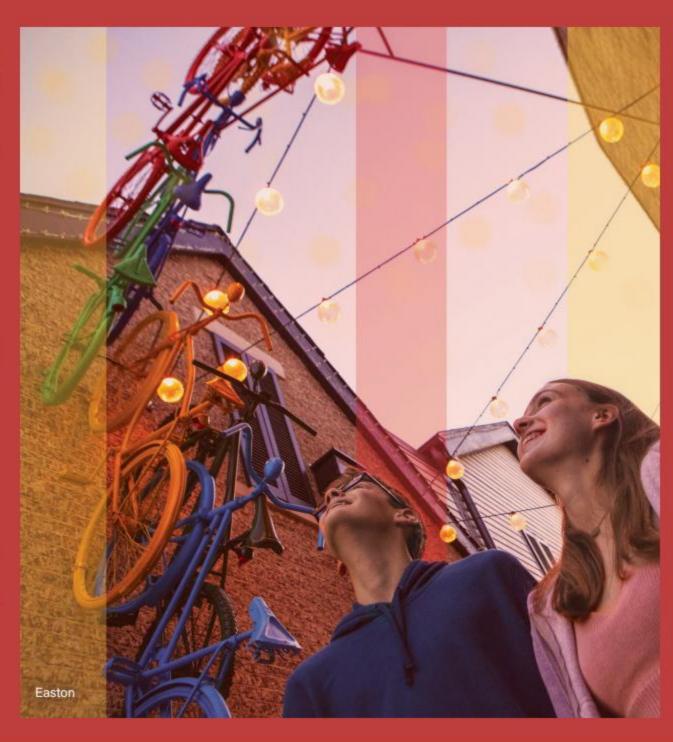

MORE FUN IN NEARBY AREAS

Local history buffs rejoice! The Ohio History Center near Clintonville reopened in 2021 and is the perfect place to visit if you want to put on your historian hat and step into the past.

Need to get away from it all for a weekend? Escape to nearby Buckeye Lake and enjoy leisure time on both land and water. Or maybe shopping is more of your thing. With more than 240 best-in-class businesses that call it home, Easton is one of the city's premier shopping, dining, and entertainment destinations. Easton's unique village-like setting offers a broad assortment of big-name retailers that are a fashionista's dream. Nearby, the Gahanna Convention & Visitors Bureau (CVB) makes it easy to explore the herb capital of the world with its special Herbal Cocktail Trail.

For more shopping, Polaris Fashion Place features an indoor/outdoor mall that is easy to navigate and convenient for getting all your shopping done in one quick trip with its mix of market-exclusive brands and locally owned specialty shops.

Anyone who considers themselves a thrill-seeker, winedrinker, or anything in between, should check out all the adventures available from Visit Grove City. Both the Marion County CVB and Union County CVB show us how the outdoors shine. For anyone who loves quirky activities, the annual free, three-day Tomato Festival from the Reynoldsburg CVB is a must-do experience in August.

Why did you decide to open a certified gluten-free bakery?

Wendy: About 15 years ago, I discovered I was gluten intolerant. I started baking for friends and bringing fun, gluten-free desserts to gatherings. The idea took off from there. After starting our business in an incubator space which we quickly outgrew, we opened our first bakery in Columbus' Merion Village in 2014, and our second one in Dublin's North Market in 2020.

Are there signature items on your menu?

Wendy: Our signature cookie is our Oatmeal Creme Cloud, marshmallow fluff made in-house sandwiched between two soft oatmeal molasses cookies. We do a lot of riffs on nostalgic snack cakes patterned after Ding Dongs and Twinkies.

What do you love about Ohio?

Letha: Columbus — and Ohio in general — has a very supportive business climate. The city invests in large businesses, but is also taking steps to create a robust small-business community. Our state is strong in its diversity, and the historical perspective of Ohio's national significance with the Underground Railroad means a great deal.

Are there places you love to explore?

Wendy: We can walk to the Olentangy River from our house and love exploring it with our daughter, Avery, who's 10. Franklin Park Conservatory and the Columbus Museum of Art are two of our favorite places.

Start the day deliciously with a cooked-to-order breakfast at The Mount Vernon Inn in Mount Vernon that includes farm-to-table omelets made with fresh eggs from local farmers, vegetables grown in the inn's garden, and French toast topped with maple syrup from Bonhomie Acres in Fredericktown.

Find the perfect getaway designed by Village Host owners Catherine and Bryan Williamson, a Columbus-based husband-and-wife interior design and renovation team, who specialize in sprucing up homes in Columbus' hippest neighborhoods. Go to the villagehost.com to find the place of your dreams.

Relax in the in-ground pool or prepare a feast on the outdoor patio at The House at Honey Birch Farm in West Liberty, a three-bedroom, two-bathroom Airbnb on an 80-acre estate with hiking trails and a lake stocked with catch-and-release fish.

Get ready to rejuvenate at Deer Creek State Park Lodge or opt for a cabin after a day of golfing, boating, exploring nature, reading, or playing board games at this Mt. Sterling destination.

ABOVE: Savor the made-to-order breakfast at The Mount Vernon Inn. RIGHT: Take a dip in the tranquil pool at Deer Creek State Park Lodge.

RELAX WITH SPA TREATMENTS AT THESE LUXURIOUS SPOTS.

Let cares melt away in your personal Spa Suite at Le Méridien Columbus, The Joseph (ABOVE), featuring a rain shower, marble and stone décor, and a calming treatment package.

Journey to tranquility at The Woodhouse Day Spa in Dublin. Begin with a luxurious robe, reflexology sandals, and a cup of looseleaf tea in the Quiet Room, and continue with a customized day that's sure to be rejuvenating.

Spend a weekend on the water at Buckeye Lake, Ohio's oldest state park. The lake is a magnet for boaters and watersports lovers. Rent a pontoon, kayak, or boat at Buckeye Lake Boat Rental in Thornville and set out on some watery fun.

Experience life from another time at Dogwood Pass, a replica Old West town in Beaver. Glimpse shootouts and step in an old-fashioned Western saloon. Wear your cowboy boots to fit right in.

Follow the Pioneer Trail (BELOW) to discover historic sites in Marietta, the first permanent settlement in the Northwest Territory. There are 16 attractions on the trail — get your passport stamped as you visit each one, and you'll leave with a prize. The area is so rich in history that it inspired Pulitzer Prize-winning author David McCullough to write his latest book The Pioneers.

Learn the fine art of guitar picking at Fur Peace Ranch in Pomeroy in the heart of Ohio's Appalachian Country. Owned by rock legend Jorma Kaukonen, a founding member of Jefferson Airplane, the 126-acre ranch holds guitar and songwriting workshops.

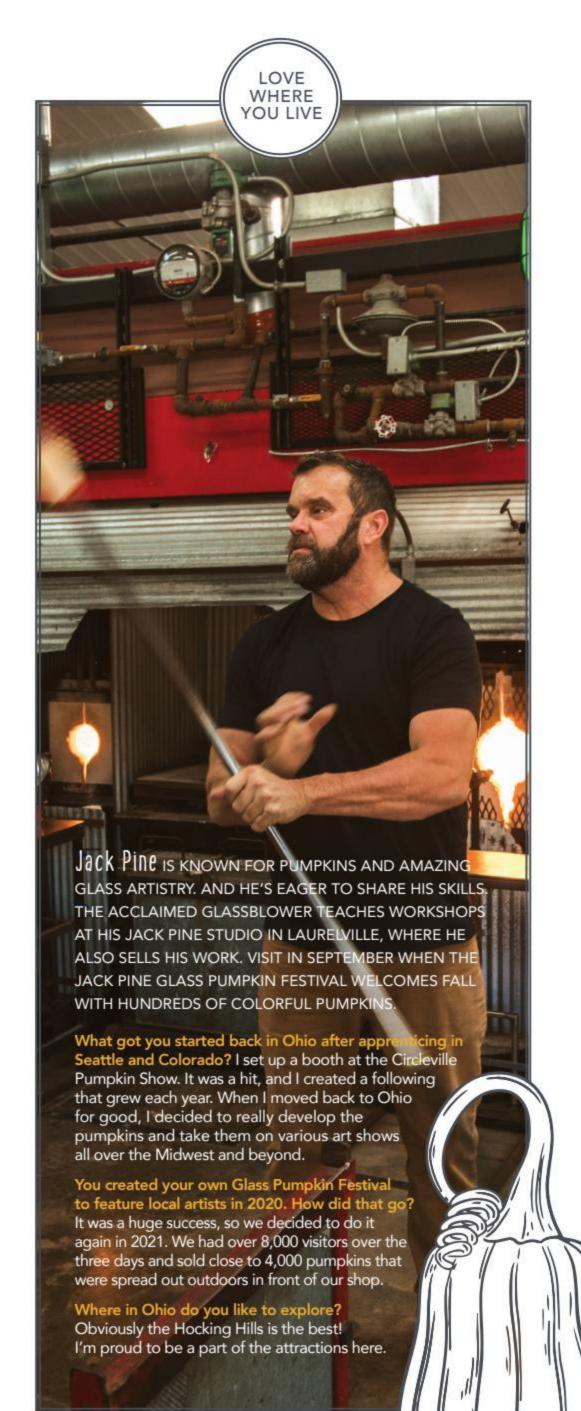

Visit the rustic landscape that inspired the Great Seal of the State of Ohio at the Adena Mansion & Gardens (RIGHT) in Chillicothe. Stroll through the 1800s mansion, once home to Ohio's sixth governor, Thomas Worthington, and wander the well-manicured gardens of the 2,000-acre estate. Seal your visit with a photo of the inspirational view. On the north lawn, you can see across the Scioto River Valley to the Logan Range.

iconic Ohio

Experience the best of Ohio at these annual events.

Get a taste of Ohio's Appalachian Country at these events.

Enjoy the scent of simmering apples and the sounds of live music at the Apple
Butter Stirrin' Festival,
Oct. 21–23, in Historic Roscoe Village in Coshocton. Be sure to explore the historic village that recreates Ohio's canal era and stop in the shops for handcrafted gifts.

Relish farm fresh food, including Ohio-made cheese and apple dumplings, and wholesome entertainment at the Bob Evans Farm Festival (ABOVE) in Rio Grande, every October. Celebrate Ohio's native tropical fruit with food, music, and contests at the Ohio Pawpaw Festival (TOP) at scenic Lake Snowden in Albany, Sept. 16-18. With a taste profile of banana, mango, and custard, the pawpaw is distinctive and addictively good!

Watch lively lumberjack competitions, including log rolling, chainsaw carving, and wood chopping, at the Paul Bunyan Show, Oct. 7–9, at the Guernsey County Fairgrounds in Lore City. Start each day off with Flapjacks for Lumberjacks for pancakes topped with Ohio-made syrup.

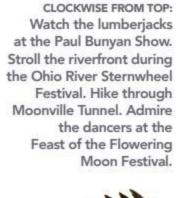

See high-flying stunts and a skydiving Santa Claus at the Vinton County Air Show, Sept. 18, in New Plymouth at the Vinton County Airport. The largest free air show in Ohio, it attracts local pilots eager to show off their airplanes. Take to the sky yourself after the show with an airplane ride high above Vinton County's pristine forests.

Celebrate Ohio's Native American culture with traditional music and dancing at the Feast of the Flowering Moon Festival, May 27–29, at Yoctangee Park in Chillicothe. Stroll through the Mountain Man Encampment to watch working craftsmen.

Get spooked at Midnight at Moonville, Oct. 8, a Halloween-themed festival with storytelling, wagon rides, and a midnight paranormal investigation hosted by a respected research group of the Moonville Tunnel in McArthur. The legendary railroad tunnel is thought to be haunted by spirits who met untimely deaths at the site, attracting ghost hunters from all over the world.

Partake in Ohio's longest continuous-running festival at River Days, Sept. 1–4, along the Ohio River in Portsmouth. Watch power boat races and a Ducky Derby, check out antique and collectible cars, and listen to live music every night.

See dozens of colorful boats line up along the Marietta shore during the Ohio River Sternwheel Festival, Sept. 9–11. Watch the huge fireworks celebration around the illuminated boats on Saturday.

Find hundreds of fun events happening year-long on Ohio.org.

Taste for yourself why southeast Ohio is known for comfort food.

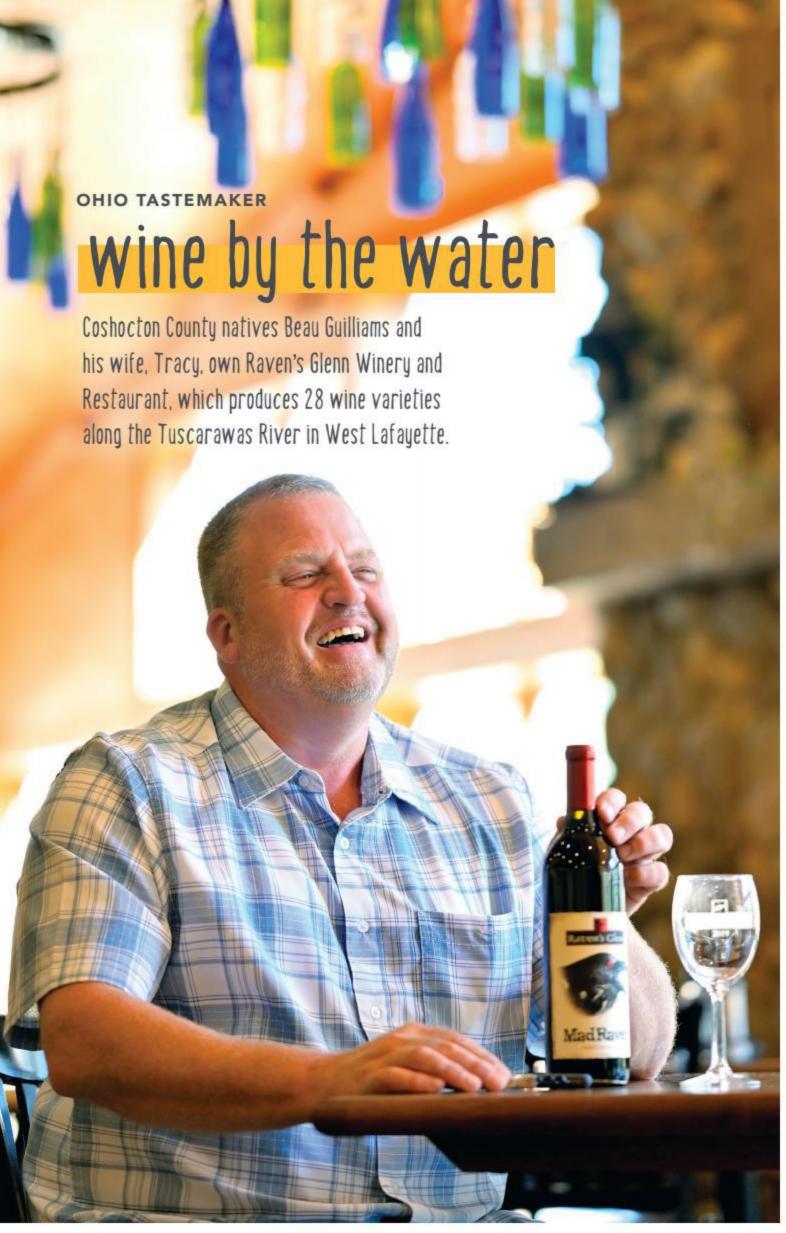

What's on the menu in southeast Ohio? Lots of comfort food, as represented by its many well-loved, down-home eateries. Come for these suggestions and return every January for the Hocking Hills Comfort Food Cruise. Visit 360 Burger in Cambridge for local ingredients in its burgers, fries, and handmade milkshakes. Try the spicy bacon burger, made with Ohio smoked bacon and local sweet-and-spicy peppers. Craving something cheesy? Lake Hope Lodge, in McArthur, serves up Pride of the Pit, an unbelievable combination of brisket, pulled pork, and maple-glazed smoked Ohio turkey. Levee House Bistro, on the Ohio River in Marietta, goes upscale with Lobster Mac 'n Cheese. For a creative take on a diner favorite, dig into the smoked meatloaf at Old Canal Smoke House in Chillicothe.

Bring a cooler to Pearl Valley Cheese (LEFT), just south of Amish Country in Coshocton County. Since 1928, the family-owned shop has drawn visitors to the tiny village of Fresno to watch the cheese-making process in action. Sample amazing flavors like naturally smoked Swiss, bacon cheese, and the Super Hot Jumping Jack Cheese, a tongue-numbing combination of habaneros, jalapeños, and ghost peppers.

What do you like about the winemaking business? As a winemaker in today's computer savvy environment, I find it really rewarding to do something the way it's always been done. There's no technology in it. Just use good fruit and good products, and it will come out good in the end.

Your restaurant is open Thursdays through Sundays. Do you pair your wine with your food? While the customer always has the choice, we have a lot of wines we can pair with food. We also offer a lot of craftbrewed beer, all from kegs.

What's your favorite spot to travel to in Ohio? My wife and I are avid fishermen, and we like to make an afternoon out of floating down the Tuscarawas River. Maybe we catch some fish and maybe we don't, but we never have to go far to be in the heart of nature.

sweet treats

1 Head to the Downtown Treatery in Jackson for delectable doughnuts with pizzazz, including custom doughnuts dolled up like cakes.

Seek out Sugar & Spice Sweets To Go (LEFT) in Coal Grove for captivating cupcakes, including lemon blueberry and bourbon pear.

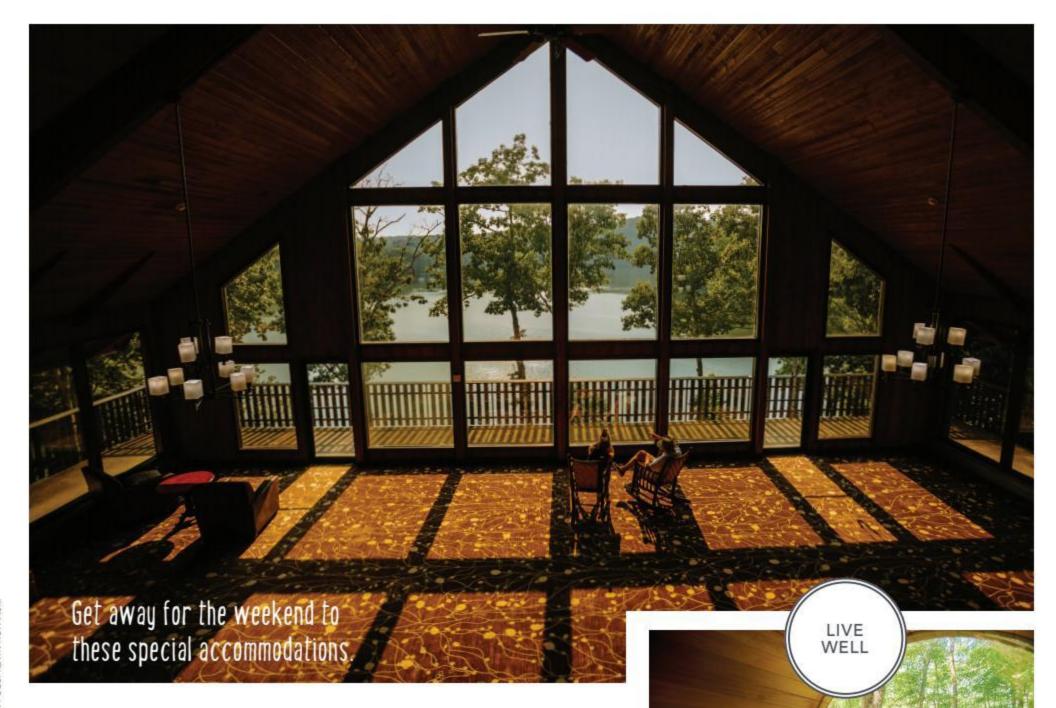

Visit the West Street Coffee Bar in Caldwell for magnificent chocolate muffins with oversized tops.

Book a cabin or a room in the cozy Burr Oak State Park Lodge in Glouster. With its remote setting next to the 660-acre Burr Oak Lake, the lodge is the perfect spot to stargaze after a day of boating or hiking on more than 40 miles of trails.

Relax in a big way at Kickin' Back Cabins in Beallsville. The two luxury cabins are tucked into the woods with a private hot tub under the nighttime sky. Explore the surrounding 170 acres on ATV trails only open to guests.

Seek out solitude at The Inns at 8th & Main bed-and-breakfast in McConnelsville. Innkeepers Dan and Amy Smith are eager to show off their hometown with packages that include craft beer flights at Old Bridge Brewing Company and tickets to the historic Twin City Opera House.

Stay the night in the charming guesthouse at Heritage Vineyard Winery in Warsaw after sipping on their small-batch wines. Take in views of the winery, vineyard, and garden from the cottage's wraparound porch.

Sweat out your stress inside the Hocking Hills Sauna Pods (ABOVE) in Logan. These comfortable barrel-shaped, cedar saunas have floor-toceiling fish-eye windows with lovely views.

Bask in the comfort of The Inn & Spa at Cedar Falls in Logan with a massage, scrub, facial, and several other enticing treatments. The spa is a short walk from the private geodomes, yurts, and cottages that dot the grounds.

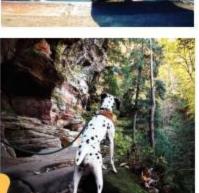

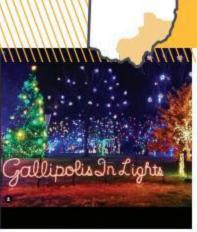

Spend time relaxing in the floatation tank at Bodhi Tree Guesthouse and Studio in Athens that offers a multitude of health and wellness activities, including yoga and massages.

all aboard

Make these 5 one-of-a-kind destinations part of your itinerary.

While visiting the Toledo Zoo & Aquarium, take your experience to new heights on its Expedition Africa Aerial Adventure Course, a customizable adventure three stories in the air with ropes courses and a zip line.

Take a walk through Ohio's history from 1803 to 1928 at Sauder Village in Archbold. Ohio's largest historic village captures life through a working farm with animals, dozens of historic shops and homes, and even carriage and train rides.

Cedar Point in Sandusky is world-renowned for its roller coasters. The park is constantly pushing the envelope with bigger and faster coasters, like the 214-foot drop on Valravn or Millennium Force (BELOW), one of the world's seven giga coasters that tops 300 feet tall and speeds over 90 miles an hour.

Celebrate the life of the first man on the moon in Wapakoneta's Armstrong Air & Space Museum, dedicated to the storied career of the city's most famous resident through memorabilia, spacecraft, suits, and a moon rock!

You can spot Perry's Victory and International Peace Memorial (RIGHT) no matter where you stand on South Bass Island. Designed like a Doric column, the 352-foot tower commemorates Commodore Perry's victory in the Battle of Lake Erie during The War of 1812. Explore the museum, see cannon and musket demonstrations, then ride the elevator up to the observation deck to enjoy a 360-degree view that looks out 10 miles.

Get a taste of Ohio's amazing agricultural bounty at these events.

Find out why Bucyrus is called the "Bratwurst Capital of America." The Bucyrus Bratwurst Festival (ABOVE), Aug. 18-20, features pageants, parades, art shows - and, of course, plenty of the signature sausage! Bite into brats roasted on the fire at the festival and take some home from Carle's Bratwurst. It's all things apple at the Van Wert County Apple Festival, Oct. 14-15, from cider to pies, dumplings to fresh apple butter. Follow the delicious smoky smell to the Defiance Rib Fest (BELOW), Sept. 24, with ribs right off the grill, hardwood > smoked meats, and live music.

iconic Ohio

Experience the best of Ohio at these annual events.

Ride the Pumpkin Train to pick your own pumpkin at Northwest Ohio Railroad Preservation Museum in Findlay every September–October.

The Hayes Easter Egg Roll, April 16, at the Hayes Presidential Library & Museum in Fremont replicates the White House Easter Egg Roll started during Hayes' presidency. Kids can try their luck at carrying a hard-boiled egg on a spoon while running across the lawn or using a wooden spoon to push an egg across the lawn.

Birdwatchers gather in Oregon
May 6–15 for the Biggest Week in American Birding (BELOW), with speakers, workshops, splash in at the Celina

and more at the height of warbler season.

The Celina Lake Festival at Grand Lake St. Marys, July 22–24, features parades, fireworks, craft shows, rides, and much more around the lakefront. Don't miss the splash-in, when dozens of historic amphicars take to the water to the cheers of the crowd.

The Toledo Jeep Festival,

Aug. 12–14, celebrates one of the nation's iconic vehicles with car shows, parades, live music, local food and drink, and plenty of family fun.

It makes sense that Port Clinton, the Walleye Capital of the World, would drop a giant walleye on New Year's Eve in the town square. Ring in the new year at Walleye Drop, held at midnight after an evening of live entertainment.

Find hundreds of fun events happening year-long on Ohio.org.

Ohio's north coast is known for creative seafood dishes.

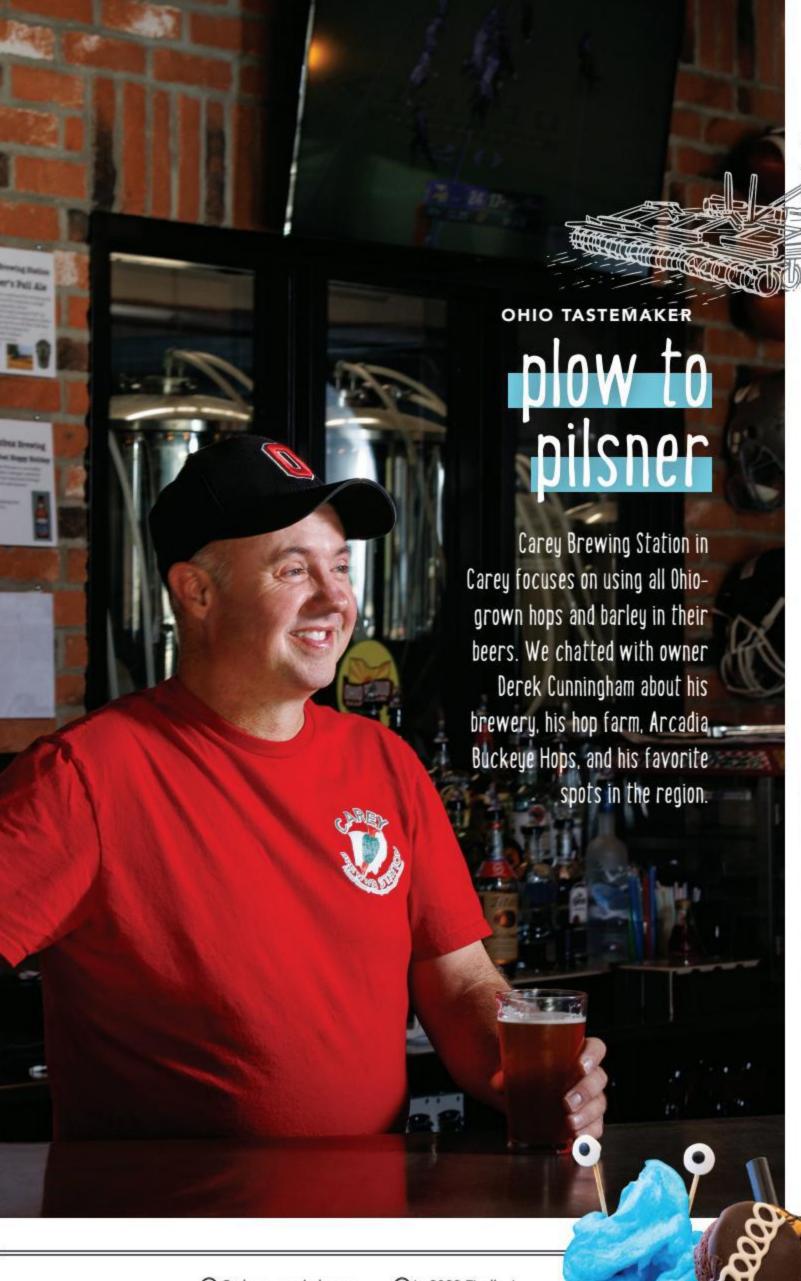

Enjoy the bounty of the sea right here in northwest Ohio! Sidney's Tavolo Modern Italian takes a spin on comfort food with lobster macaroni and cheese. Book a reservation for the Omakase experience at Kengo Sushi & Yakitori in Toledo, and let Chef Kengo take you on a 12-course, seafood-heavy extravaganza. Try the seafood nachos, jumbo shrimp, or lemon pepper white fish at Shaffer's Restaurant in Bryan. Cozy up at Mossbacks Island Bar & Grill in Put-in-Bay to feast on Cajunspiced walleye nuggets and perfectly fried Lake Erie yellow perch. Wash it down with one of their popular fishbowl drinks.

A Toledo institution since 1932, Tony Packo's (LEFT) delights guests with chili dogs and chicken paprikash, and walls decorated with hot dog buns autographed by movie stars, musicians, astronauts, and presidents. Burt Reynolds started the tradition of signing buns when he performed in Toledo in 1972; now hundreds of signed buns can be found at the five Toledo-area locations.

What drew you to using Ohio ingredients in your beer?

We started out, my son and I, growing hops in 2014 and selling them to breweries across the state. We're a family that's grown up in agriculture. When we got into the business as a brewery, we thought we'd use hops from our farm and malted barley from across the state.

Do Ohio products impart any particular flavors to the beer?

One hop that we feature ourselves is Arcadian. It turned out to be a hop that's very profitable, very unique, and brewers like it. We use it in our Mr. C. Hay-es-e IPA — it gives you a little hoppiness that's not quite as potent as, say, Columbus hops.

else do you like to visit? We like White Shutter Winery (ABOVE) in Nevada, which started as a winery and then added a brewery. A new one that just opened up is 1820 BrewWorks in Kalida — we've enjoyed that. And Laird Arcade Brewery in Tiffin.

sweet treats

Order a maple bacon donut, peanut butter buttercream stick, or apple fritter at Pat's Donuts & Kreme that's made breakfast special in Lima for more than 30 years.

10 In 2022 Findlay's Dietsch Brothers Fine Chocolates & Ice Cream celebrates 85 years of decadent chocolates, meltaways, and rich ice creams.

Finish your meal at Slack House Historic Café in Marblehead with their signature over-the-top shakes, towering with ice cream, cookies, and even cheesecake!

Packer Creek Pottery in Genoa features whimsical handcrafted pottery like bowls, plates, and mugs, adorned with everything from buckeyes to floral prints to pumpkins.

Built in 1870, the Casey-Pomeroy House sits in Toledo's Vistula Historic District. The beautifully restored home is now a bed-andbreakfast with six rooms, richly appointed with modern amenities. Spend your time relaxing at the house or booking a couples massage, or use it as your home base to explore the Glass City.

Enjoy scenic views of the waterways at The RiversEdge Executive Suites in Tiffin, built out of a former gristmill. The beautiful brick structure features lounge chairs and tables looking out over the Sandusky River.

Enjoy comfortable rooms, breakfast, and easy access to local parks, and restaurants.

Book a room at the Mill House Bed & Breakfast in Grand Rapids, a homey establishment in a renovated 1898 flour mill on the Maumee River with cozy guest rooms and breakfast served on the patio overlooking the canal.

Make friends with the native winged wonders that call the Ohio Bird Sanctuary (ABOVE) in Mansfield home, and visit the new Treehouse Classroom — suspended between a beech and sycamore tree — to learn how they're being cared for and rehabilitated.

Celebrate the yuletide season all year at Castle Noel in Medina, which features the world's largest privately owned collection of Hollywood Christmas movie props and costumes. Check out the Polar Bear Club, an Arctic-inspired gathering place where the menu is filled with craft cocktails, the tables are shaped like icebergs, life-sized Polar Bear statues await photo ops, and Cousin Eddie's Patio Pub provides the perfect place to relax.

If you're not hungry when you walk into the West Side Market (RIGHT), you will be soon. One of Cleveland's premier destinations, it's drawn visitors from around the world to the historic Ohio City neighborhood since it opened in 1912. An architectural marvel featuring a 44-foot-high tile vaulted ceiling and 137-foot tall clock tower, the public market is home to more than 60 vendors offering everything from cannoli to spices.

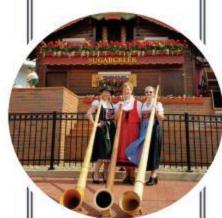

Get a taste of Ohio's amazing agricultural bounty at these events.

Savor the flavors of fall during Apple Butter and Cider Weekend Oct. 1-2 at Lake Metroparks Farmpark in Kirtland. Find your way through the corn maze and watch apple cooking demonstrations sure to make your mouth water. Journey to Switzerland by way of Sugarcreek during the Ohio Swiss Festival (ABOVE), Sept. 29-Oct. 1, which honors the town's heritage with wine and cheese samplings, races, contests, parades, and music. Don't miss Steinstossen, a Swiss sport where competitors throw a huge stone with the goal of achieving the greatest distance. Head harborside to Ashtabula on July 22-24 for the Wine, Dine and Walleye Festival featuring outdoor dining, live music, and plenty of mouthwatering walleye and perch.

Experience the best of Ohio at these annual events.

Marvel at the prowess of the game's best players at the 71st-annual NBA All-Star Game in Cleveland on Feb. 20. Festivities will be staged Feb. 18-20, including the three-point and slam dunk contests.

Be an eyewitness to what is remembered as a pivotal moment in history when D-Day Conneaut — the Aug. 18–20 re-enactment of the Allied landings in France during World War II — takes place on the expansive grounds of Township Park in Conneaut, which realistically resembles Omaha Beach, where the landing took place.

Follow in the footsteps of Peter Cottontail during The Great Steubenville Eggsibition, a spring extravaganza of gigantic Easter eggs meticulously decorated by local artists and placed throughout downtown businesses in Steubenville April 15-May 8.

Celebrate the customs and traditions of Native Americans at the Great Mohican Pow-Wow Sept. 16–18 in Loudonville, a weekend that includes music, dancing, and storytelling. Watch drumming and dance competitions, and shop for handcrafted jewelry, carvings, and pottery.

Honor the athleticism of NFL greats during Pro Football Hall of Fame Enshrinement Week every August in Canton, which features youth camps, autograph sessions with iconic players, the induction ceremony for the Class of 2022, and the Hall of Fame Game that kicks off the season.

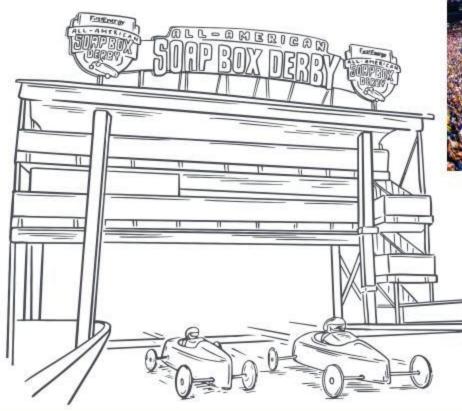

Cheer your favorite driver at the All-American Soap Box Derby (BELOW) July 17–23 in Akron. The world-famous race comprising more than 500 national and international qualifiers, ages 7 to 20, has been run in Akron since 1936.

You'll scream for ice cream when you taste these specialty flavors.

Treat yourself to the ultra-creamy "Divine Nine" house-made, small-batch ice creams Cockeye BBQ & Creamery in Warren is known for, including Blackberry Chocolate Chunk, Buttermilk Pie, Fresh Strawberry, and Cookie Monster, filled with high-butterfat lusciousness. Find the perfect ice cream cake and a rainbow of made-from-scratch sherbet flavors, ranging from refreshing lime, lemon, and orange to passion fruit and prickly pear, at Miller's Creamery in Millersburg and Dover. Dig into an irresistible array of flavors you never thought possible — from Zucchini Bread to Lavender Honey to Merlot Dark Cherry — expertly crafted at Chill Artisan Ice Cream in Akron and Medina. Partake of handcrafted goodness at Mitchell's Ice Cream in Cleveland's Ohio City neighborhood, featuring delectable varieties made from fresh seasonal ingredients and flavors from Ohio and around the world.

Let the luscious taste of melt-in-your-mouth brownies add sweet memories to your day at Betty Kaye Bakery (LEFT), a Carrollton landmark since 1950, famous for the more than 20 varieties of brownies that change as the seasons do.

COCKEYE BBQ & ICE CREAM CHILDREN: MINGLEWOOD DISTILLING COMPANY, BROK

Why did you choose to open the distillery in the heart of Amish Country? I grew up in Fredericksburg, and my dad is from West Salem, so we've always been here. The farmers we rely on for our grains are great guys, who are very open and transparent with us about what they do and how their growing process works.

What do you love about Ohio's farmland? The farmers tell me Wayne County has thick layers of topsoil, which is really good for growing the grain we use. Ohio provides an ideal climate for growing rye. A winter crop, it's planted in the fall, germinates through the winter and is harvested in spring and summer — which leads to pretty high yields, especially in northeast Ohio. And I love the fact that I can drive right past the field where my corn is coming from.

Do you have favorite restaurants?

We love the gumbo at Broken Rocks Café & Bakery (ABOVE) and the cocktails at Rox Gastropub in Wooster.

What do you love about Ohio?

I like the people. No matter where

I like the people. No matter where I go, they're very welcoming and very helpful — especially in Wayne County and in Wooster. Wooster is a very supportive community where businesses like to help other local businesses. You don't see that in many other states.

toast to ohio

Sip a glass of pinot noir or a blush wine on Waterstone Farm's stone terrace and patio at Wellstone Winery in Freeport. Owners Trevor and Kimberly Mallernee have created a serene spot. © Choose from a variety of handcrafted beers always on tap amid the laidback Midwestern vibe Avon Brewing Company in Avon is known for. The family-run brewery makes everything from sours to stouts.

Enjoy amazing brews inspired by the tastes of Latin America at Willoughby's Pulpo Beer Co., brewed with premium malts and hops, and featuring a menu of flavors reflecting the owners' heritage.

Find your favorite flavor among the 90-plus options — the world's largest selection of gourmet Italian pizzelle cookies — at Just Pizzelles in Cortland. Part of Trumbull County's Italian Food Trail, Christina Benton's popular bakery offers flavors ranging from jalapeño to mint julep.

Warm up to the artsy firepit that's perfect for your backyard at Ohio Flame in Columbiana. Local artisan Matt Skillman creates firepits that double as a functional piece of art.

made in Ohio

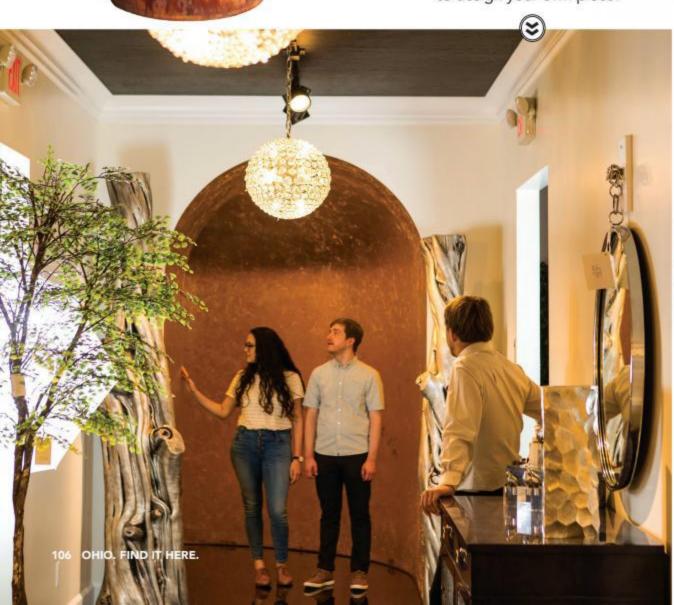

Take home a keepsake that's made exclusively in Ohio. Find more items on Ohio.org/MadelnOhio.

Fill your rooms with meticulously designed décor made by Amish artisans from Homestead Furniture in Mt. Hope. You can even work with their craftsmen to design your own piece.

Put a smile on your child's face at Wild Republic in Twinsburg, known for crafting realistic stuffed animals that foster curiosity about the natural world and the wildlife it sustains. Cuddle up with lions, tigers, and bears (oh my!) or species that are native to Ohio, including deer, beaver, and raccoons.

You're sure to smile and say cheese at Heini's Cheese Chalet in Millersburg, a third-generation family-owned company since 1935 known for their 25-plus varieties of cheese, as well as jams, fudge, and specialty meats.

RELAX WITH SPA TREATMENTS AT THESE LUXURIOUS SPOTS.

Feel like royalty at the opulent Spa & Salon at The Grand Resort (ABOVE) in Warren, where a full complement of therapeutic and rejuvenating facial and body care treatments await, including aromatherapy deep pressure massages, thermal wraps, and Vichy showers.

Relax mind, body, and soul by partaking of five-star facials, massages, or body treatments designed to melt cares away at The Spa at Lakehouse Inn in Geneva-onthe-Lake.

Find tranquility in a private spa suite at Spa Walden in Aurora, an inn inspired by Henry David Thoreau's famous book Walden. Relax with a massage tub, personal steam room, Swiss shower, and a menu of customized services.

Get away for the weekend at these lodging options that go beyond the ordinary.

Spend the night amid the ambiance of the taproom next door in the luxurious Brewers Quarters at Sandy Springs Brewing Company in Minerva, an Airbnb that mirrors the warm, rustic décor of the brewery which specializes in American- and European-style ales and lagers.

Find inner peace by strolling along the walking trail and in the magnificent gardens of Shady Oaks Farm Bed and Breakfast in Northfield, furnished with 18th-century antiques and period reproductions, but filled with thoroughly modern amenities.

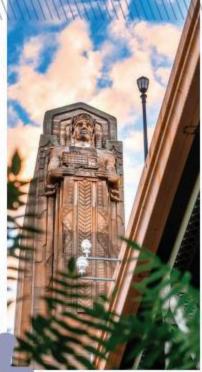

Let time stand still at The Farm House in Parkman Township — a four-bedroom, renovated 19th-century home that can be rented for a weekend or week. It's located on a lake amid 100 acres of rolling hills and features a sun porch, fully equipped kitchen, high-speed Internet, and charming views of Amish buggies clip-clopping by.

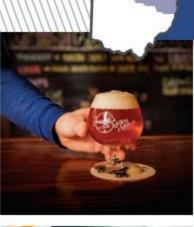

Admire breathtaking views of Lake Erie's southern shore at The Lodge at Genevaon-the-Lake, a four-season escape with 21st-century amenities, or opt to stay in a cozy lakeside cottage with a covered porch, gas fireplace, and shuttle service to the area's award-winning wineries.

Make these 5 one-of-a-kind destinations part of your itinerary.

- Take a stroll along the Cincinnati
 Black Music Walk of Fame, opening this summer. Since African-American musicians have played an indispensable part in making Cincinnati one of the nation's most influential music cities, this new star-studded walkway recognizes the contributions of local legends like the Grammy-winning Isley Brothers, singersongwriter Bootsy Collins, Motown singer Otis "Big Daddy" Williams, and gospel music pioneer Charles Fold.
- Witness wonder and mystery in Ohio's Appalachian foothills at Serpent Mound (BELOW) in Peebles, where the world's largest snake-shaped earthworks coils across a grassy plateau. Ancient Native Americans constructed the nearly quarter mile-long effigy mound, but the magnificent serpent's purpose religious? ceremonial? astronomical? remains a riddle that is yet to be solved.

You don't have to be a foodie to fall in love with Jungle Jim's International Market (RIGHT). Each of Jungle Jim's massive stores in Fairfield and Eastgate covers more than 200,000 square feet and contains an incomparable selection of 180,000 products from 70-plus countries. The bakery makes at least 700 loaves of bread daily; the produce department carries 800 kinds of fruits and veggies; and the cheese shop offers 1,400 different cheeses. Bring a cooler or buy one there.

shows under the sun, moon, $ stars

Sit under the stars or bask in sunny weather at these annual performances.

Hit all the right notes at the Cincinnati Music Festival, July 21–23 in Paul Brown Stadium. One of the biggest musical shows anywhere, it annually features the big stars — think Janet Jackson, Patti LaBelle, and Stevie Wonder — of rhythm and blues, jazz, soul, and hip hop.

Once known for producing bells sold around the world, the little town of Hillsboro is now famous for the Festival of the Bells, July 7–9.

These free concerts lure tuned-in country and Christian music fans from as far away as Texas and California. Listen to music every night after a day of food, games, and rides.

Hear tunes by local favorites during the popular Canal Music Fest in Tipp City on June 12. Bring a blanket or lawn chair, and kick back in City Park to listen to a full lineup of bands.

Get a taste of Ohio's amazing agricultural bounty at these events.

Strawberry lovers iam downtown every summer for the Troy Strawberry Festival (BELOW), June 4-5, to enjoy bountiful berries and bands. Pro tip: the strawberry donuts are simply scrumptious. Sample freshly harvested shrimp and learn about aquaculture during the Ohio Fish and Shrimp Festival on select Saturdays in September at Freshwater Farms of Ohio in Urbana. Be sure to feed the trout and pet the resident sturgeon while you're there. From its sausage-andpancake breakfasts to famous pork chop dinners, the Preble County Pork Festival Sept. 17-18 in Eaton goes whole hog. Take the experience home with you; bring a cooler and buy bacon and ribs to-go at the Country Store Meat Market.

Be amazed by aerobatic stunts and the stellar flying skills of elite military pilots at the CenterPoint Energy Dayton Air Show July 30-31. See skydivers, acrobatic airplanes, and the U.S. Navy Blue Angels.

Find out what made Jolly Old England so jolly at the Ohio Renaissance Festival, Sept. 3-Oct. 30 in Waynesville. Come in costume or just as you are to explore this stylized 16th century village where you'll eat, drink, and be merrily entertained by performers ranging from jousting knights to singing pirates.

Cincinnati celebrates its German heritage to great acclaim during Oktoberfest Zinzinnati every September. Learn to dance the polka, take part in the world's largest chicken dance, and sip a traditional German beer paired with sausage at the country's biggest — and arguably best — Oktoberfest.

Extending from the Ohio River to Findlay Market, one of the nation's biggest lighting and projection mapping extravaganzas transforms multiple neighborhoods into glowing outdoor art galleries with huge murals and light installations during Blink Cincinnati, held every October.

The Legendary Lights at Clifton Mill (TOP), set for Nov. 25-Dec. 30 in Clifton, are truly legendary. During this beloved — and electrifying — holiday event, more than 4 million lights blanket an historic grist mill, a covered bridge, and the scenic slopes of Clifton Gorge.

Celebrate the 200th birthday of Ulysses S. Grant throughout 2022. Tours and multiple events at the Grant Birthplace in Point Pleasant and Grant Boyhood Home in Georgetown will salute the outstanding Ohioan who served as both a Civil War general and U.S. president.

Pork — it's what's for dinner at southwest Ohio restaurants.

Once a pork-packing capital, southwest Ohio showcases pork on its menus along with whimsical flying pig sculptures including one named Hamlet at the Cincinnati Shakespeare Company. Bread and butter pickles with jalapeños provide some heat and wood fires produce exceptional meats at Pickles & Bones Barbecue in Milford where even the sides — including bourbon roasted sweet potatoes — are homemade. Try the pork belly tacos or the Pendleton Porker sandwich with the trifecta of pulled pork, smoked pork bellies, and bacon at Lucius Q in Cincinnati. They even offer a spin on Cincinnati's other claim to fame, chili, in their BBQ 3-Way with barbecue pulled pork, spaghetti, and shredded cheddar cheese. The barbecue sauce is so tasty that customers slather it on fried bologna sandwiches as well as plates of pulled pork, brisket, and chicken at Beaugard's Southern Bar B Que in Wilmington. The homestyle menu at Werner's Smokehouse Bar-B-Que in Jeffersonville entices with house-fried pork rinds, BLTs with sweet-peppered bacon, homemade ham and bean soup, and pulled pork hotshot served with mashed potatoes and gravy.

Expect something different every time you visit The Winds (RIGHT) in Yellow Springs. The seasonal menu changes every couple of months along with the art for sale on the walls. Co-founder and current owner Mary Kay Smith has embraced a farm-to-table menu for more than 40 years — long before the term was coined. The wine pairings are so good, you'll want to stop by The Winds Wine Cellar next door.

Patty to seasonal best-sellers like pumpkin, Young's Jersey Dairy in Yellow Springs annually makes nearly 40 flavors of ice cream. For an extra-special treat, order one of Young's homemade waffle cones. Young's is just one of 20 stops on the Ohio Ice Cream Trail.

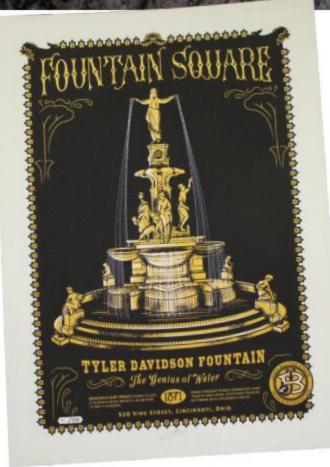

The word is out about the Secret Shake Society. Foodie destinations in the Hamilton-Middletown area create limited-edition shakes with unique flavors like Tortuga Del Mar from Karma in the Kitchen. Get the scoop on where to go; join for free at gettothebc.com/secret-shake-society.

This confectionary may be small, but Loveland Sweet Shoppe in Loveland delivers a mighty selection of delectable ice creams with ingredients ranging from fresh bananas to bourbon and brown sugar.

made in Ohio

Take home a keepsake that's made exclusively in Ohio. Find more items on Ohio.org/MadelnOhio.

Take home some of the magic from the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed Westcott House in Springfield. The gift shop sells two exceptional art books - Wright in Ohio, which features exquisite panoramic photos, and Historic Houses of Springfield, a delightfully different coloring book.

Shop from local artists at MiCA 12/v in Cincinnati's trendy Over-the-Rhine neighborhood. Owners Mike and Carolyn Deininger's contemporary gallery and boutique specializes in ceramics, art glass, and jewelry.

@Using Ohio-sourced fruits, honey, and maple syrup, Emily Hutton of Prospect Jam Co. in Cincinnati crafts jams and marmalades with tastebud-tempting flavors like Blueberry Jam with Lavender & Lemon Balm or Strawberry Jam with Pink Peppercorn.

Artist and typographer extraordinaire James Billiter, owner of Billiter Studio, creates museum-quality, sense-of-place prints — including a gorgeous Fountain Square poster that capture Cincinnati's culture, BLAKE, WESTCOTT HOUSE: MATTHEW ALLEN, BILLITER PROSPECT JAM CO.; PROSPECT JAM CO.

Get away for the weekend at these lodging options that go beyond the ordinary.

Be first to ride the amazing coasters at Kings Island in Mason by staying at Camp Cedar. The new year-round outdoor lifestyle resort features deluxe cottages as well as full-service RV sites. Splash away in two swimming pools:

one for families with a waterfall and mini-slide and an adults-only relaxation pool. Escape to elegance at Hotel Versailles in Greenville. Scheduled to open this spring in the bucolic village of Versailles, it combines the peace and guiet of the countryside with amenities and experiences — including luxurious bed linens and farm-to-fork dining rooted in the local harvest — that are fit for a king.

After a day of exploring Yellow Springs, walk back to the charming Mills Park Hotel just steps from the area's top restaurants. Modeled after a Victorian home, it has a grand front porch outfitted with relaxing rocking chairs, Amish-made poster beds, and an onsite restaurant specializing in comfort foods and craft cocktails.

Enjoy the perfectly harmonious Symphony Hotel in Cincinnati. The boutique hotel hits a high note with its unbeatable location near the Cincinnati Music Hall, nine distinctive guest rooms named for composers, a popular jazz bar, and full-service restaurant specializing in New American cuisine.

RELAX WITH SPA TREATMENTS AT THESE LUXURIOUS SPOTS.

Into yoga? Then do some kidding around with Yogoat (ABOVE), a goat yoga company that brings baby goats to yoga class venues in Cincinnati ranging from breweries to birthday parties. The cute and cuddly kids relieve stress, reduce tension, and generate smiles by butting into your poses.

Unwind at downtown Cincinnati's chic 21c Hotel. Their spa delivers head-to-toe treatments, including the calming Himalayan Salt Stone Massage and the Ultimate Stress Reliever offering 80 minutes of tension-relieving bliss. Breathe in the fresh air at the rooftop cocktail bar, then check out the contemporary art on display.

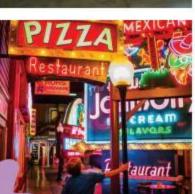

Enjoy the ultimate in relaxation at Gravity Spa in Beavercreek. Like the name suggests, you'll seemingly defy gravity as you float in water saturated with around 1,000 pounds of Epsom salt and heated to skin temperature.
